

CURRICULUM VITAE

Shukur Djuraevich Askarov

Education

- Academician of International Academy for Eastern Countries' Architecture, 1993-present
- Professor, Doctor of Architecture in History and Theory of Architecture, and Urban Planning (Dissertation's title: "Regional Identity of Central Asian Cities," Saint-Petersburg, 1990)
- Candidate of Architecture in History and Theory of Architecture (Dissertation's title: "Constructivism in Central Asia," Tashkent, 1974)
- BA in Architecture, Tashkent Polytechnic Institute, 1970

Positions Held

Professor, Tashkent Institute for Architecture and Construction, 1973-present
Leading Senior Scholar, Uzbekistan Fine Arts Institute, 1998-2006
Education and Culture Adviser, U.S. Embassy Tashkent, 1992-1998
Architecture Department Head, Uzbekistan Fine Arts Institute, 1992
Dublin County Council's Housing Department Trainee, Republic of Ireland, 1991
Deputy Director, Central Asian Architecture and Urban Planning Institute, 1990-1992
Urban Planning Department Head, Uzbekistan Urban Planning Institute, 1974-1990

Courses Taught at Tashkent Institute for Architecture and Construction

-For Bachelors: Uzbekistan's XX-th Century Architecture, XX-th Century Architecture Abroad
-For Masters: Integrated Course on Basics of Research, Theory of Architecture and Urbanism, Typology of Central Asia's Urbanism, International Criteria and Rules for Historical Cities
Reconstruction

Publications

Monograph "Architecture and urban planning in the early XX-th century Central Asia," Tashkent, 2010
Monograph "Architecture of the Temurids," Tashkent, 2009
Monograph "Region-Space-City," Moscow, 1988
3 "Methodological Recommendations for Urban Planning"
110 articles on Architecture and Urban Planning

Professional activities

2010 Presentation "Bukhara: Towards a Management Policy for Conservation" at International Policy Forum on Urban Growth and Conservation in Eurasian Corridor (Istanbul Conference)
2005-2007 Presentations on Central Asia's Temurids and Constructivist Architecture at George Mason (Washington, D.C.) and Rutgers (New Brunswick) Universities (USA)
2003 Presentation "Italian links of the Temurids Architecture" at Politecnico di Bari (Italy)
2001 Tashkent Indian Culture Center's Evening on Architecture of Baburids
2000 Aligarh Muslim University's Workshop on the Temurids for Rajasthan Teachers (India)
1992 Dublin Technology Institute's Winter School of Students of Europe (Ireland)
1990 Lahore "Anjuman Mimar" Seminar on Sultanate Period Architecture (Pakistan)
1970-1990s Seminars and Workshops of USSR and UzbekSSR Architects' Unions

Membership and Activities in Professional Associations

2004-2005 Scientific Committee Member, UIA Istanbul Congress (Turkey)
1995 Technical Reviewer, Aga Khan Award for Architecture (India and Turkey)
1993-2007 Expert, Uzbekistan Cabinet of Ministers' Higher Attestation Commission,
1993 Jury Member, Al-Boukhari Project Samarkand International Competition
1992- present Academic Board Member at Architecture Institutes of Baku, Tashkent, Almaty
1973-present Member of Plenum, Uzbekistan Architects Union,

Fellowships, Awards, Professional Honors

2005-2007 Visiting Professor to Harvard University (Boston) and University of the New School (New York)
2003 European Commission Tempus Program's Individual Mobility Grant to Italy
2000-2002 Open Society Support Foundation's Research Grant
1990 World Architecture Biennale Awards (Sofia)
1980-1990 Uzbekistan State Construction Committee's Honorable Awards

Knowledge of Languages

English and Uzbek (good), Russian (excellent), Italian and French (with dictionary)

Personal

Born in Tashkent, December 21, 1946. Married. Two daughters and son.