

First name(s) Surname(s)	AMRA HADŽIMUHAMEDOVIĆ
Address	Marcela Snaidera 9a, Sarajevo 71000, Bosnia i Hercegovina
Telephone(s)	+387 33 22 55 06 +387 61 89 40 082
Fax	+387 27 67 68
E-mail(s)	amra.h.m@bih.net.ba ; amra.dada@gmail.com ; amra.hadzimuhamedovic@kons.gov.ba
Nationality	BiH
Marital status	Married, two daughters and two sons
Gender	Female

From the start of her career she has been engaged in bringing together spatial planning and heritage protection through practical action, scientific research work, writing and education. For the last eight years of her 27-year career she has been part of the team heading the Commission to Preserve National Monuments of Bosnia and Herzegovina, which received the Charter of the Ministry of Culture and Sport for its contribution to the preservation and restoration of Bosnia's cultural heritage in 2004, and the European Union Prize for Cultural Heritage/Europa Nostra for Dedicated Service in 2010. She was awarded a research fellowship at the ICCROM International Centre for the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property in Rome in 2008. She has worked with international teams on the INTERREG III programme under the auspices of the European Commission and the Vision Planet project with the University of Trieste, on the drafting of the Faro Convention as a member of the Council of Europe's team of experts, and as programme coordinator for the Council of Europe's Regional Programme for the Cultural and Natural Heritage in South East Europe. She has served as a member of the Council of Europe's Steering Committee for Cultural Heritage and as vice-chair of the ICCROM Assembly. In 2007/08 she served as an international expert for cultural heritage in the Kosovo settlement negotiation team. Academic and scientific works: She has been involved in seven scientific research projects, five of them international. She has published several dozens of papers and reviews in scholarly and peer-review journals, and the proceedings of the international conferences. She is a member of the editorial board of the journal Baština/Heritage, and has edited three issues of the journal. She has worked as designer, team member or consultant on 83 projects in the fields of architecture, urbanism, and the conservation and restoration of the built heritage, including the Regional Planning Strategy for the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the first post-war development planning document and two nomination files for the inscription of monuments in Bosnia and Herzegovina on the UNESCO World Heritage List.

Teaching career She was appointed as assistant lecturer (1996-1999) and senior assistant lecturer (1999-2002) in the Department of History of Architecture and Revitalization of the Built Heritage of the Faculty of Architecture, University of Sarajevo. She has lectured on the heritage in war and post-war as a visiting professor at several universities, including Haverford College, USA (fall semester 2002, spring semester 2003); the Faculty of Architecture in Trieste, Institute for Architecture, Design History and Urban Planning, UNESCO Chair (on several occasions between 1997 and 2007); Yale University, New Haven (Council on European Studies at YCIAS, 2003) Pennsylvania, USA; the Solomon Asch Center in Philadelphia (2002); Swathmore College, USA (2002); Villanova University, USA (2002); Boston University (2004); Brandeis University (2004); Hebrew College in Boston (2004); and the Royal University of Fine Arts, Stockholm (2009). She has also lectured at leading specialist international courses under the auspices of ICCROM in Rome; Conservation Philosophy Concepts, International Aspects of Protection (1997, 2009); Cultural Heritage without Borders Gjirokaste Restoration Camp 2008, as part of a three-year professional training programme in Jerusalem organized by UNESCO, ICCROM and the Welfare Association: Site management Planning and Management of Conservation Projects (2008-2010), etc.